'Jacanamijoy: su reflexión sobre el racismo'

'Jacanamijoy: a reflection on racism'

Presented by Carlos Jacanamijoy

The paintings of Carlos Jacanamijoy seek to represent voices from his native land which may have never been heard. Following his exhibition 'Retrospective' which appeared last year in Bogota the artist, a member of the indigenous Inga people, decided to produce this audiovisual piece. 'Jaca' recored the footage for his documentary with his mobile phone and it is intentionally unscripted as his objective went well beyond the professional technique of a film maker.

"I want us to recognize ourselves as a country of mestizos (mixed race) and be proud. We have Indian, Black and other bloods but this does not mean that we are inferior."

Presented in person by the artist who will be available for questions afterward
